COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY AT WILLIAMSBURG IN VIRGINIA, OCT. 23, 1917

No. 1

FACULTY ADDITIONS

FOUR NEW PROFESSORS THIS SESSION

When we returned to college this year we not only missed the faces of many of our fellow-students of last year who have answered the call to arms, but also many kindly faces of the lecture room.

Dr. Davis of the Department of Biology, is at the Officers Training Camp at Fort Myer, Va., and his place is being filled by Prof. Caldwell, a William and Mary man of the class of 1915.

Professor Wade of Columbia and John Hopkins Universities and a student in the leading European Universities, has taken charge of the Department of Modern Languages, filling the place of the late Dr. Calhoun.

Captain Taylor of V. P. I. is in charge of Military instruction and drill. Two companies have been organized and are progressing rapidly under his instruction.

H. K. ("Cy") Young of Washington and Lee fame is with us as athletic coach. Coach Young is a four-letter man of Washington and Lee and was captain of last year's eleven. His fame as an athlete was not confined to the campus of his Alma Mater but last year was spread throughout the South. His one by-word on the athletic field is fight, and with such a coach we are going to give somebody a hard fight for every championship in this league.

OPENING GERMAN.

The German Club gave its opening German Saturday, October 20, in the College Gymnasium, from 8 to 12 o'clock. The Gym was attractively arranged with Orange and Black streamers and the banners and pennants of the college.

Many were the fair young ladies, from nearby towns, who added grace to the occasion by their presence. Mingled among the dancers were many army and naval officers, who availed themselves of the opportunity of attending a college German once more. Many of the Alumni were present.

The music was rendered by Hulcher's Orchestra of Norfolk.

Among the Alumni returning for the German were: Messrs. Stephens, Tilley, Tolson, Bent, Pullen, and Lieutenants Griggs and Wright.

Lieutenants Pannell, Parker and Smith of Camp Lee, and C. A. Haden of Fort Monroe were present.

Hereafter, The Flat Hat will be issued Tuesday morning. All contributions should be sent to the managing editor as early each week as possible.

WILLIAM AND MARY DEFEATS

YELLOW JACKETS IN DECISIVE GAME

Indians Develop Strong Offensive—Close, Brooks and Fentress Star—Final Score 13 to 0.

The William and Mary Indians administered a decisive defeat to the Randolph-Macon Yellow Jackets on Cary field, thereby scoring their first victory of the season and tying Richmond College for second place.

William and Mary kicked off to Randolph-Macon and Hardy ran the kick back 10 yards. The Jackets made first down by a series of rapid line plunges. Randolph-Macon failed to make first down and the Indians got possession of the ball. The bantam-weight back-field of the Indians developed an offensive that put the ball on their opponent's twenty-five yard line, where they lost it on downs. Randolph-Macon kicked. Close on a thirty-yard run carried the ball to the Jacket five-yard line. Fentress was given the ball and carried it over for the first touchdown. Another touchdown in this half brought the score to 13 to 0 in favor of the Indians.

The second half was hotly fought by both elevens but neither was able to score. The Jackets got dangerous in the last period when they uncorked a series of forward passes which netted them three first downs.

Captain Close, Brooks and Fentress starred for the Indians while Bridgeforth, Hardy and Coffey did the best work for the visitors.

The tackling and general style of play of the Indians showed great improvement over that of previous games, thanks to Coach Young.

The line-up:

W. & M.	Position	R.-M.
Chisholm	L. E.	Bridgeforth
Tipton	L. G.	Richardson
Stout	L. T.	Beasley
Garber	C.	Scott
Close (Capt.)	R. T.	Fringier
Webb	R. G.	Coffey (C.)
Clark	R. E.	Gun
Brooks	Q. B.	Hardy
Fry	F. B.	J. J. Scott
Brittingham	F. B.	Newell
Fentress	R. H.	Davis

Score by quarters:

Randolph-Macon	0 0 0 0
William and Mary	6 7 0 0—13

Substitutes: Randolph-Macon—Cardwell, Anius, Gills; William and Mary—Ferguson, Broadwater, Gurnon, Cook, Fitchett. Referee, Gooch of Virginia. Umpire, Boyd.

Every Student at William and Mary should be a supporter of the Flat Hat. Are you?

IN MEMORIAM.

On the morning of October 2, a telegram was received here announcing the death of our esteemed professor and comrade, Dr. John C. Calhoun. Dr. Calhoun's death occurred in Selma, Ala., and the funeral was held there Tuesday, under the auspices of the Masonic Order of which he had been a member for many years. He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Miss Mary Calhoun.

Dr. Calhoun has been professor of Modern Languages at William and Mary for the past five sessions, and was in his sixty-seventh year. He was a great nephew of the celebrated South Carolina statesman, John C. Calhoun. He was educated at Washington and Lee University, and had received the advantages of European travel and study, having been a student at the University of Strasburg, University of Paris, and the University of Luzanne, Switzerland. For years he was professor of Greek in the University of Alabama and later was professor of Modern Languages in the Woman's College at Tallahassee, Fla., resigning from that institution to come to William and Mary. He was at one time a tutor of President Woodrow Wilson.

Dr. Calhoun was a member of the Washington and Lee Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, Masonic Order, and Knights of Pythias. He was of the Presbyterian faith, and was prominent in the work of his own and other churches. He was a man of firm character and high ideals and was a powerful influence in college and community life. Dr. Calhoun was possessed with a profound sense of duty, and love for his work, but through it all he was ever the students' friend and sympathizer, gaining and holding their confidence. Hundreds of students all over the State heard of his death with the deepest sorrow, for he held a place in the heart of every man who knew him.

The Faculty, the members of which express a feeling of personal loss in the death of their friend and colleague, sent a wreath as a token of their regard, and on Friday morning in the Chapel memorial exercises were held, and as a further mark of respect, classes were suspended until the noon hour.

CLASS ELECTIONS

JENKINS HEADS SENIORS, CHANDLER PROPHET, AND MAPP, POET

As soon as classes started and work for this year began the Senior Class met and elected the following officers: Floyd Jenkins, president; A. J. Mapp, vice-president; J. R. Byrd, treasurer; C. L. Charlton, secretary; W. Broadwater, historian; H. G. Chandler, prophet, and A. J. Mapp, poet.

The next organized were the Juniors who elected N. J. Webb, president; W. W. Johnson, vice-president; M. M. Hilliard, secretary; W. H. Cheatham, treasurer, and R. C. Rives, historian.

The Sophs elected "Joe" Garber of last year's varsity squad to head them; J. D. Carneal, Jr., being elected vice-president, and J. M. Jones, secretary.

The "Ducs" elected as their guide and leader, H. L. Bridges, Jr.

The members for the Student Council are: Robinson, Derieux, Jenkins and Broadwater from the Seniors; and H. T. Smith, Ferguson and Brooks compose the Junior delegation. Warren and Moorman of the Sophs and Frye of the "Ducs" make the body complete.

in the following resolutions:

"Whereas, Almighty God, in his infinite wisdom, has seen fit to take from our midst our beloved and esteemed professor, John C. Calhoun, and

"Whereas, the deceased had devoted the latter part of his life to the best interests of the college and ever had at heart the welfare of the students, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That we, the student body of the College of William and Mary, do hereby express our sorrow for the loss of our sincere friend and faithful professor, and extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved family.

"Be it further Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased and that they be published in the Colonial Echo, Flat Hat and the William and Mary Literary Magazine.

COLLEGE ACTIVITIES.

Why do we come to college? To get an education, of course. Now the question arises in what does an education consist? Surely, one may study books and books for ever and not have a college education. There is a great deal more in a college education besides books.

Consider the college activities, fellow-students. Every student in college should take an active part in some branch of college activities. There are various avenues through which a student enters the life and activities of the college, for example, athletics, literary—such as writing for the college publications—and religious.

If you are not connected with some one of these activities you are missing two-fifths of your college life. You do not pay three-fifths of your fees so why not get value received?

PATRONIZE ADVERTISERS

Fellow Students:

In behalf of "THE FLAT HAT," I feel that it is my duty to urge on all of us the necessity of patronizing those firms who advertise in our columns.

We cannot conscientiously ask people for advertisements unless we know positively that we can patronize them and thereby show our appreciation.

This year we are striving to get out the best paper in the history of the College: we therefore need your assistance more than ever before. By this, I mean we need your co-operation and your help.

Subscribe liberally and let not one of us fail to subscribe to it.

Remember! All branches of our college activities, as well as our athletics, need our able support, and let us, as a student body, see that one branch gets as much support as the other.

Please remember—Fellow Students—that this is our paper. Let's make it one worth while!

Yours very truly,

J. D. CARNEAL, Jr.,
Business Manager.
